Dear John:

Mr. Peter Marshall of the British Embassy came in after following up a letter he had received from Mr. Cortassi, IRD, Foreign Office.

Two copies of Latin American Daily Report.

Two copies of Peking Trends and Highlights.

Two copies of Survey of Moscow Broadcasts.

Two copies of Survey of Peking Broadcasts.

One copy of Radio Propaganda Branch Reports (as issued)

As you may know, [redacted]

[redacted] and I am consulting him on how he would like this request handled. I presume that you have no objections, but I wanted to keep you informed since I understand that Mr. Marshall will forward this material to Mr. Cortassi through the Embassy pouch.

If for any reason this seems confusing, I would not hesitate to back out of the arrangement with Mr. Marshall since I have already informed him that from our standpoint, the BBC is our only authorized point of liaison with RMC.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Chief, FEIS
